Ms. Kline is a Partner in Saul Ewing's Litigation Department and a member of the Firm's Insurance Practice Group. She focuses her practice on complex commercial litigation matters, with an emphasis on litigation involving insurers and reinsurers. Past and present representations include litigation concerning reinsurance coverage, insolvency, and bad faith. Ms. Kline has also represented clients involved in commercial disputes concerning antitrust claims, breach of contract, breach of warranty, fraud and accounting fraud. She has tried jury and non-jury cases, as well as arbitrations, and argued before the federal and state courts of appeals.

Ms. Kline is an Adjunct Professor of Law at Villanova University School of Law. She also lectures frequently on insurance and reinsurance issues for the Insurance Society of Philadelphia. Through her involvement with the Insurance Section of the Philadelphia Bar Association, she has team-taught an "Advanced Topics in Insurance" course at the Rutgers-Camden School of Law.

Prior to joining Saul Ewing, Ms. Kline served as a Law Clerk to the Honorable Morton I. Greenberg of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, and the Honorable James McGirr Kelly of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.
