DANIEL D. SANTOS NAMED ONE OF CENTRAL PA'S "FORTY UNDER 40"

(Harrisburg, PA, October 26, 2009) – On Friday, October 23, 2009, Daniel D. Santos was honored when he was named one of Central Penn Business Journal's 2009 Forty Under 40 award recipients for his commitment to business growth, professional excellence and the community at an evening reception and awards program at Hilton Harrisburg. This year marks the program's 15th anniversary.

Santos is an associate in the Business Department of Saul Ewing LLP and a member of the Firm's Health Law and Insurance practice groups. He is a regulatory and corporate attorney who represents clients on a multi-state and federal level in the highly regulated healthcare and insurance industries. Prior to practicing law, Mr. Santos was a Special Operations Officer in the U.S. Navy. He served on active duty for seven years, and specialized in diving & salvage and surface warfare operations.

Nominations for the Forty Under 40 program ended in late April, and a panel of four judges, all past recipients of the award, reviewed and scored the nominees to determine the top forty list.

Santos earned his Bachelor's of Arts degree from the University of Virginia and his law degree from Penn State The Dickinson School of Law. He is admitted to practice law in New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Saul Ewing LLP is a full service law firm with 250 lawyers in nine offices in Pennsylvania, Maryland, New Jersey, Delaware, New York and the District of Columbia. The Firm serves businesses throughout the United States and internationally, including recognizable names in corporate America, exciting start-ups and an array of closely held and privately held companies, as well as nonprofits, governmental and educational entities.
